

Please leave the cross-ownership rules in place!!! If there had been less media consolidation and corporate control, perhaps Americans would have been better informed and expected the acts of September 11 (and avoided them) as much of the rest of the world did.